Al,
I got your voice mail this morning. I did some further research, and did find that deep in the file is another CD at Wells Fargo in Houston, with the name Timothy Brand. The previous bond release was done before I took over this territory, so I'm not sure what happened to the CD in Blanding, it may have been released earlier, I assume. Since the letter going to Blanding will either "get lost" or be totally meaningless, I am going to re-write the release letter addressed to Timothy in Houston.
Perhaps to help prevent the penalty you mentioned, can you send me the email contact for your person at Wells Fargo so that I can keep him (or her) in the loop on this. I will copy them on any further communiques so that he is aware of the proceedings.
I will do everything I can to steer this new letter through the system as fast as possible.
Again, sorry about this.
Thanks,

Mike,

Thanks for your email. I checked with Wells Fargo and they have no person at Wells at this time named Timothy Brand.

If the letter could be addressed to the following person and address that would be very helpful:

Jacqueline Jones

Wells Fargo Bank

5302 FM 1960 Rd. West

Houston, Texas 77069

Tel. (281) 866-0186

If a copy of that letter could be sent to me that would also be helpful. My Address etc. is as follows:

Allan Cooper

14405 Walters Road

Suite 330

Houston, Texas 77014

Tel. (281) 893-7685

If you have any questions please let me know. Thank you!

Al Cooper

Al,
Sorry, but in a hurry to catch up and get the letter out ASAP, I wrote it up and sent it up the chain, addressed it to Timothy Brand. Now after looking at the address you provided, I sent it to the address that was on the CD, 5625 FM 1960 Road West.
So, the question is, do you want me to send out another letter with the address you provided, or hope that the post office can forward it to the right one?
I have to leave the office now, will take care of it based on your response first thing in the morning.
Thanks,

Mike,

I talked to the bank and they advised me to have you send it to the person and address I last provided you.

Also, for safety sake if you would send a signed copy to me at the address provided on Walters Road I could take that to them if anything happened to the original.

Thank you!

Al

Al,
I just went across the hall and intercepted both previous letters from our Division Directors in-box before they could go out. I have rewritten the letter with the address you requested, with a CC: to your address. However, the Director is out today, will be back on Monday, so it won't get signed and sent until then.
You may want to forward this email to Jacqueline so she is aware of the potential time lag involved.
I hope this will finally get it to the right place...

Jacqueline Jones email address: jacquelinejones3@wellsfargo.com

Please let me know if that is possible?

Thanks for all of your help!

Al...my last email to you that I copied to Jacqueline Jones got bounced back as undeliverable as an "unknown user." There must be something wrong with the address...could you please double-check with her what it is? Thanks,

Mike,

Double checked Jacqueline Jones email address & found a mistake. There is a dot after her first name.

The corrected email address is Jacqueline.jones3@wellsfargo.com

Sorry for that.

Thanks, Penny. I think the address for jacqueline jones is going to get bounced back. There is supposed to be a period between "jacqueline" and "jones." I only found out about it after I sent the original email that you were copied on.
