Purpose of Inspection:

Inspected this site while in the area.

Directions to Site:

Refer to previous inspection reports

Inspection Summary:

There has been no additional mining activity since my site visit on June 7, 2006. None of the material in stockpiles at the site has been removed. The disturbed areas on the lower portion of the site are being overgrown with Russian thistle.

No photos or GPS data was collected during this inspection.

Conclusions and Recommendations:

I will continue to monitor the site when I am in the area.
