Universal shooting film near salt mine

REDMOND, Sevier County — A salt mine near Redmond has a use — it has attracted the movie industry.

The facility is being used by Universal Studios to film a segment of a movie titled "Slaughter of the Innocent." It was described as an "Indiana Jones" type action film by Ronnie Bosshardt of the Redmond Clay and Salt Co., owner of the mine.

One scene depicts an ark coming out of the mine.

Bosshardt told members of the North Sevier Area Chamber of Commerce that filming requires a crew of about 50 people, whose 30-day stay will give a boost to the local economy.
