

From: Priscilla Burton
To: Steab, Suzanne
Date: 8/29/2011 11:12 AM
Subject: Fwd:July 18 Work

>>> Dave Lee <davelee@skylinereclamation.com> Monday, July 18, 2011 10:14 AM >>>
I think they are spreading wood straw and planting whatever plants there are to plant. They have taken quite a bit of wood straw to the site but havnt been able to get it all the way to the project because of weather and road conditions. Call me if you would like. My cell# is 18019950683

On Jul 18, 2011 10:09 AM, "Priscilla Burton" <priscillaburton@utah.gov> wrote:

> Dave,
> Ingrid has the plants. What are they doing?
> Priscilla.
>

>>>> Dave Lee <davelee@skylinereclamation.com> Monday, July 18, 2011 10:03 AM >>>

> Hi Priscilla, John and the crew are at the job site now. Hopefully this > eases Ingrid's mind a little. I don't know why she couldn't get ahold of > either of us. We always get your emails and if we aren't in service we > respond once we get it. Hopefully things go well today. Thanks, Dave Lee
> On Jul 18, 2011 9:48 AM, "Priscilla Burton" <PRISCILLABURTON@utah.gov>
> wrote:

>> Hello Dave and John,
>> We are really glad that the rains have helped to water in the plantings, > but we understand that it may be affecting your work schedule. Ingrid has > had difficulty contacting you to determine the number of plants to bring > down to the site. I will be at the site each day this week. If I do not > see > you at the site, please make it a point to check in with me (435-613-3733 > office, 435-609-1014 cell) or Ingrid (801-538-5318 office, 435-901-3007 > cell) daily in the afternoon, so that we know your work schedule and can > contact the nursery to have an order prepared for pickup the next day. As > you can see from the email below, Ingrid also has concerns about the > supervision of the planting crew. Lightening at Scofield took the life of > a > boy scout last week, please be sure to talk with your crew about safety > precautions during thunderstorms.

>> Thank you,
>> Priscilla

>>
>> Priscilla Burton, CPSSc
>> Division Oil Gas & Mining
>> 319 Carbonville Rd., Ste. C
>> Price UT 84501
>> (435) 613-3733
>>
>>
>>
>>

>>>>> Ingrid Campbell Monday, July 18, 2011 7:10 AM >>>>
>> James/Priscilla-

>>

>> I took a load of riparian plants to White Oak on Thursday. The site was in > the process of drying out, but it had significant high water levels over > this week. I saw debris on the planted willows about 6 inches to a foot > higher than the current stream level. The willows held out. The crew (a > group of teens), planted the uppermost terrace C with only 3 of the four > terrace species, planted the lower riparian zone on the west side by the > drop structures and the upper riparian zone above the sinkhole. There are > many places along the riparian planting that only some of the species have > been planted, so those areas need to be filled in. I had delivered the > entire order of 240 clematis plugs earlier that week. John said they planted

> about 50 of them on terrace C, I couldn't find any-but they are pretty hard > to find in the grasses. While walking up the stream channel, I found several > plugs washed down the channel, and then found the entire tray flipped over > about 200 feet below the upper riparian planting. (The plugs only go on the > terraces, so there is no reason they should have been in this area. The crew

> told me that they had left the tray 3 feet from the stream channel during > the storm. I am estimating between 40 and 70 plugs were lost. I tried to > talk to John about this, but he left the site around noon. I told the boys > to not leave any unplanted plants in the stream channel in case of a storm,

> but to water them before they are planted, or before leaving them unplanted.

> The remaining plugs cannot be planted until terrace A and B are prepared, > so, I took the remaining 150 plugs home over the weekend to water them, > because John had left and it didn't appear that he was taking them with him.

> Hopefully they can get some mulching and hydroseeding done this week and > finish some planting. I will post some pics to the O drive soon.

>>

>> Thanks

>>

>> Ingrid

>>

>>

>>

>