Re: Boundry Markers.

Dear Ms. Linner:

Per our telephone conversation yesterday, we intend to move our highwall boundary markers at Hardscrabble, Sowbelly, and Crandall to comply with O.S.M. Ten-Day-Notice X-89-02-107-11.

Please note that Castle Gate does not consider this to be an admission that this procedure is correct or that the company has a liability to fully reclaim "pre-law" highwalls. It is understood that we have agreed that the actual procedure for reclaiming these highwalls will be worked out in our current permit renewal process and will consider each site's given resources. The new positions of the markers do not reflect the extent of "pre-law" highwall reclamation.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. McKenna
