Hi Sue,

I just wanted to send you a reminder about drafting a concurrence letter for the Sow Belly Gulch and Hardscrabble Canyon portions of the Castle Gate permit area. I was hoping to wrap up the approval for the Phase III Bond Release by the end of the month. Currently, I am awaiting concurrence from BLM and OSM. Could you let me know the status of the letter and if you are planning to give a yes to concurrence for Phase III release?

Thank you, Sue.

Best Regards,

April
