Dear Mr. Haddock:

The Utah State Historic Preservation Office received information on the project referenced above on January 16, 1992. After review of section 4.14, our office concurs with the determination that No Historic Properties, will be effected by the project. The relevant section also indicates that if cultural resources are located, a program of mitigation will be used.

This information is provided on request to assist the Division of Oil, Gas and Mining in identifying historic properties, as specified in 36CFR800, for Section 106 consultation procedures. If you have questions or need additional assistance, please contact me at (801) 533-7039.

Sincerely,

James L. Dykman
