Dear Mr. Haddock:

We have reviewed your letter of January 4, 1994, regarding the question of water depletions at the Banning Loadout, Carbon County, Utah.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (Service) concurs that the use of water from the sump at the Banning Loadout would not be considered a depletion of water from the Colorado River system.

If you have any questions you can contact Susan Linner, Fish and Wildlife Biologist at (801) 975-3630.

Sincerely,

for Robert D. Williams
Assistant Field Supervisor
