Angela,

I spoke with Vicky Miller and indeed, a number of maps and such were not included with this amendment. As such, it didn't pass the IR sniff test. However, Vicky does not want us to mail the copies back to her if that's possible. She'd rather we kept them and she will come up here with a new C1/C2 and the additional information and we will modify the copies we already have. Will that be o.k. or no? I can certainly call her and tell her they're coming back if that would be easier. Let me know.

thanks,
Steve
