Vicky,

August sounds fine. I've got my hands full with Crandall Cyn. this week, and I'm on vacation all next week. So unless we did it the last week of July, it's looking like August until we can get up there. Let me know when you hear from Mr. Conover and we'll schedule something.

thanks,
Steve

Steve, I have not heard back from Gil Conover, the land owner/water right trust administrator. I would suggest due to my recent scheduling changes and to allow more time to reach Mr. Conover that we wait until sometime in August to plan a field trip to the Cow Canyon drainage.

Thanks, Vicky
