Thank you for the update. An extension to February 24, 2006 is granted.

Hi Pam,

I spoke to Dan this morning. Although things are still very much up in the air he thought Wendy may be back to work in a couple of weeks. If not, his daughter Dana will be in next week and she can help pull the information off the computer. Therefore he suggested that we ask for a two week extension for the submittal. As I explained yesterday, the changes have all been completed, and we have gone over it with the reviewers. We just need to pull it all up and make copies, and assemble the response. Thanks Pam
