Dear Mr. Braxton:

Re: Reclamation Plan: Hidden Valley Coal Company

In connection with the foregoing, I prepared an affidavit earlier this year on August 16, 1986. At the time such affidavit was prepared, I was ignorant of the fact that a wholly owned subsidiary of California Portland Cement Company, Soldier Creek Coal Company, had changed its name to Hidden Valley Coal Company in connection with the sale of certain other coal properties and equipment by California Portland Cement Company in late 1985.

An affidavit reciting the foregoing facts is enclosed for use in connection with the above-referenced application.

It is my understanding that you will return the original and any copies of the affidavit I made on August 16, 1986, to John Rains.

I apologize for any inconvenience my inadvertent error may have caused.

Very truly yours,

John L. Frogge
Division Counsel

4. In connection with the sale in 1985 by California Portland Cement Company of other coal properties and equipment located within the State of Utah, the Corporation (then known as Soldier Creek Coal Company) agreed to transfer the right to use the name "Soldier Creek Coal Company" to the purchaser of said properties and equipment.

5. The Corporation thereafter changed its name, by amendment of its Articles of Incorporation, to Hidden Valley Coal Company.

6. The Corporation is currently the owner of the real property and leasehold estate described in paragraph 3 above.

7. California Portland Cement Company presently holds 100% of the outstanding stock of said Corporation.
