DIVISION OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

FORREST S. CUCH
Division Director

Dear Ms. Malin:

This letter is in response to your letter dated July 13, 2004 regarding the above listed subject.

The Utah Division of Indian Affairs has neither a catalog of such items, nor the archeological expertise necessary to determine whether a particular site has American Indian significance. If you desire to have a site study conducted, and/or the review of a study conducted by another archaeologist; I would refer you the State of Utah's archaeologist, Kevin Jones.

Mr. Jones works very closely with this office regarding any Indian related concerns, i.e. religious sites, human remains, funerary objects, etc. You can contact Mr. Jones at the following address and phone number: Kevin T. Jones, State Archaeologist, Utah Division of State History, Antiquities/Archaeology, 300 Rio Grande, Salt Lake City, UT 84101, (801) 533-3524.

If necessary, I would also suggest you contact the cultural resource office, and/or business committee of the Indian Tribe nearest the location of the project. I have enclosed a listing of the American Indian Tribes in Utah, along with a map for your review and files. Mr. Wil Numkena is no longer with our office. Mr. Forrest S. Cuch has been serving in this position since 1997. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Forrest S. Cuch, Director
Utah Division of Indian Affairs
