TECHNICAL FIELD VISIT

Date: May 28, 1997

Mine: Crandall Canyon Mine

File Number: ACT/015/032

DOGM Staff: Robert Davidson

Other Attendees: Dave Shaver, Andalex Resources, Inc.

Purpose:

- Appraise proposed soil stockpile area at the mouth of Huntington Canyon, Nielson Construction site.

Observations:

- The proposed stockpile location is located on a gravel bench where Nielson Construction has been storing equipment and supplies. The area is approximately 1 acre, overlays mancos material, is dry, and is surrounded by weeds.
- Discussed requirements for using this site, including permitting requirements.
- Discussed options other than this site, including USFS land located at the mouth of Crandall Canyon. Mentioned telephone conversation with Dale Harbor, USFS, and continuing resolution to use USFS land for soil storage.

Recommendations/Conclusions:

- Pursue the option for storing soil on USFS land located at the mouth of Crandall Canyon.
