

From: Carter Reed <creed01@fs.fed.us>
To: <jimdsmith@utah.gov>, <jimdsmith@utah.gov>
Date: 10/30/03 8:32AM
Subject: Blind Canyon Study

Jim, I don't believe there is a study for this area. As I recall the data available at the time that the mine plan was being reviewed showed that a portion of Blind Canyon Creek was perennial, but further monitoring showed that it was not. Roy Sidle did some baseline monitoring but the study did not continue after it was determined that the drainage is not perennial.

Carter Reed
Forest Geologist
Manti-La Sal National Forest
Supervisor's Office
599 West Price River Dr.
Price, UT 84501
435-637-2817
creed01@fs.fed.us