Share fav recipes w a holiday

Shopping, wrapping presents, baking, cooking, socializing. The holidays be a busy time, indeed. To save time and money on holiday baking, consider hosting a cookie swap. It's a great way to spend time with family and friends, and away with a wide array of holiday cookies to grace your holiday table.

How It Works

Invite a group of family friends to each bake 2-4 dozen of their favorite holiday cookie. As guests arrive, they arrange their cookies on a table with a card identifying each type of cookie. Guests then go around the table and pick a specific number of assorted cookies to take home with them. For ease, divide the number of guests by the total number of cookies to determine how many cookies
