Dear Mr. Kittrell:

Subject: October 9, 2007 GRAMA request to Utah Oil, Gas and Mining – Crandall Canyon Mine

This letter responds to your October 9, 2007 GRAMA request.

Enclosed is a CD-R containing:

- Crandall Canyon Confidential Files
- Document Index file
- Read-me file with instructions
- Miscellaneous Emails collected from Utah Division of Oil, Gas and Mining (Division) personnel as supplied to the US Senate HELP committee and the Salt Lake Tribune.

Second, access to all Genwal Crandall Canyon Mine documents is made available via the following website <https://fs.ogm.utah.gov/COALFILES.html>. The site includes the Crandall Canyon Mine mining and reclamation plan (MRP), and the Incoming, Outgoing and Internal correspondence.

OGM will add to the site as mine plan records come in to this office and are scanned in to the system. The web site and CD-R should fulfill the extent of F & C's request, for Items # 1, 3-11, 14-16, 18, 20-23, 25-26. All other numbered items are addressed as follows:

- #2 The Division does not lease coal or any other commodity.
- # 12 The Division does not issue or receive copies of MSHA general mining orders.
- #13 The Division does not lease coal, nor hold lease bonds.
- #17 The Division is not providing daily calendars and other personal notes...as described in GRAMA's definition of "record" at 103(19)(b)(vii). Correspondence or communication with UEI outside of the matters of Crandall Canyon, i.e. for Murray Energy, Andalex, Genwal Resources, etc, can be found in the Incoming, Outgoing and

- Internal files for the Wildcat Loadout, Horse Canyon Mine Lila Canyon Extension, Centennial Mine Complex and West Ridge Mine. These documents can be accessed via the web site <https://fs.ogm.utah.gov/COALFILES.html> for each of these mines.
- #19 Same as for # 17.
- #24 Same as for # 17.

The cost for production of the CD-R is $20.00, payable to the Division.

If you have questions, you can contact me at 801-538-5306, Randy Harden at 801-538-5285 or Steve Alder at 538-5348.

Sincerely,

Mary Ann Wright
