WAIVER

COASTAL STATES ENERGY COMPANY, a Texas corporation (the "Company") hereby agrees to waive any alleged retroactive effect which might be asserted under Section 40-8-7 Utah Code Annotated, 1953, with respect to the special Rules and Regulations adopted by the Division of Oil, Gas and Mining on May 25, 1978, covering coal mining and reclamation operations in the State of Utah, insofar as said Rules and Regulations apply to coal mining and reclamation operations to be conducted after June 20, 1978, pursuant to coal mining and reclamation plans submitted by the Company and approved by the Board and Division of Oil and Gas and Mining prior to May 25, 1978.

By granting this waiver, the Company in no way waives its right, any time in the future, to challenge the authority or any action of the Board or the Division of Oil, Gas and Mining, or any other federal, state or local regulatory agency to enforce the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977, Public Law 95-87.

This waiver is expressly contingent upon the execution of a Cooperative Agreement by and between the United States of America and the State of Utah pursuant to the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977, Public Law 95-87, and shall be of no legal effect until said Cooperative Agreement is in full force and effect.

Dear Mr. Daniels:

Pursuant to your request, Coastal States Energy Company has executed the enclosed Waiver. We believe the Waiver is sufficient to cover our coal mining and reclamation operations conducted after June 20, 1978, at our Southern Utah Fuel Company Convulsion Canyon Mine in Sevier County, Utah and our operations on what has been commonly referred to as the McKinnon property in Emery and Carbon Counties, Utah.

Yours Truly,

Loren A. Williams
