Dear Mr. Braxton:

In response to the concern in your letter dated October 30, 1985 on who will assume ultimate responsibility for continued maintenance of the livestock fence along the stock trail which crosses a portion of the permit area, the cattlemen will have the ultimate responsibility for continued maintenance of the livestock fence during and upon cessation of mining operations. The livestock fence will not be removed during final reclamation. SUFCo will have the responsibility to repair any damage to the livestock fence made by mining operations.

Sincerely,
SOUTHERN UTAH FUEL COMPANY
