(Comments are Numbered to Correspond with Topics Listed Above)

4b. DIVERSIONS

The diversion swale at the waste rock disposal site has been hydromulched and seeded to supplement the vegetative channel cover. The channel contained some snow drifts but no evidence of surface runoff could be seen. The silt fence at the bottom of the swale continues to provide effective sediment control until adequate vegetative cover can be established.

4c. SEDIMENT PONDS AND IMPOUNDMENTS

The sedimentation pond has recently been decanted. The water level on the date of the inspection was approximately three to four feet below the primary spillway crest.

16. ROAD DRAINAGE CONTROLS

Upon arrival, the road entrance to the mine site was in the process of being washed down to control coal fines on the road surface. The operator appears to be effectively controlling coal fines on the loadout pad in this manner.
