3. Topsoil
The substation pad was under construction at the time that I was there. Stockpiled topsoil from this area was temporarily stored on the stock trail with a silt fence around it. The Forest Service indicated that the trail will not be used to trail cattle this year, and the pile should be moved before spring. Since this was temporary storage, the pile had not yet been seeded.
13. Revegetation
The area that was seeded last fall on the refuse pile looks very good. There are some weeds, but there are also a lot of vigorous grasses and even some flowers.
